

Roberts Has An Underlay To Suit Your Needs

Underlay is arguably one of the most important aspects of any flooring project. Proper selection and installation is crucial to the wear and stability of any flooring.

In the growing market of laminate and engineered floating floors, the biggest concerns are noise/sound and water/mould damage. Roberts Underlays are engineered to meet the highest standards in sound reduction, moisture protection and comfort.

Roberts offers a range of underlays to suit your needs.
